GONZALO FEDERICO MOYANO

FRONTEND DEVELOPER

I have been passionate about Frontend development since I met him. I feel a great motivation to continue learning and perfecting myself.

I currently perform Frontend functions at Etna Education. I also work as a Freelance carrying out projects with different technologies and providing a digitization service. I am interested in the whole Frontend spectrum and working on challenging projects in contact with good people. I am constantly learning and looking for a new challenge. I really enjoy creating and making things look good.
